

Norman Kiecke

Norman Kiecke is a lifetime resident of Bellville and is not a stranger to the business world. He graduated from Bellville High School in 1977 before he went on to earn his bachelor's in business administration from the University of Texas in Austin.

Kiecke has worked in the Insurance Industry and was president of Anco Insurance in Bryan/College Station before purchasing Tesco Industries in Bellville in 1999. He currently is the CEO of DLN Holdings which owns Tesco Industries, LLC in Bellville and R&M Forge and Fittings, LLC in Houston.

Kiecke enjoys the outdoors when he is not in the office. Some of his favorite activities are biking, hiking, hunting, and fishing. He can also be found on the weekends playing guitar and singing with the Bellville United Methodist Church's praise band or with the popular Austin County band, Red Bulls, in venues in our area.

He and his wife of 41 years, Darcy (Schultz) have three children and four granddaughters.

Vance Elliott

DISTRICT 6

Vance R. Elliott grew up in Dayton, Texas, a rural rice farming community in southeast Texas. He grew-up showing animals in FFA and working in every aspect of rice farming. Elliott has been an insurance agency owner since 1988 with the past 13 years being in Columbus, TX. Vance is a Texas veteran who served three years in the U.S. Army Military Police, and earned his Bachelor's degree from Sam Houston State University. Prior to going into the insurance business, Vance was Employee Safety and Security Manager for the Houston Chronicle for five years. During his tenure as an insurance agency owner Vance was elected three times to the office of Justice of the Peace in Kerr County.

Vance has served on the SBEC board since April 1, 2018 and is a Credentialed Cooperative Director with the National Rural Electric Cooperative Association.

Vance has served as President of the Columbus Chamber of Commerce and as a District Governor in Lions International. Outside of the office, Vance enjoys hunting and spending time with his wife Heather, kayaking, zip lining, and enjoying live music. Vance and his wife Heather have three married children and one granddaughter.
